

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between
Rose State College and
Oklahoma State University—Oklahoma City
regarding the
COLLEGIATE OFFICER PROGRAM (COP)

Purpose: The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is to expand the opportunities for individuals in the Oklahoma City metropolitan area to prepare themselves for a career in law enforcement.

Primary Institution: Students shall have the option of pursuing the COP associate's degree at either RSC or OSU-OKC. The institution that accepts a student into its COP shall be the primary institution for that student. The policies and procedures in effect at the student's primary institution shall govern that student in areas such as admission to the COP, overall academic guidance and counseling, financial aid, residency requirements, minimum retention grade point average requirements, etc.

Courses: Students may take courses at OSU-OKC and/or at RSC as part of their COP degree requirements if those courses are accepted by their primary institution as fulfilling its COP curriculum requirements. However, COP "skills" courses (listed below) must be taken from OSU-OKC. The following courses are designated as COP "skills" courses: PLSC 1211/Firearms, PLSC 1212/Traffic, PLSC 1313/Patrol Procedures, PLSC 2111/Defense Tactics, and PLSC 2211/Emergency Vehicle Operations.

Liaison: The directors of the COP at RSC and at OSU-OKC shall be responsible for communication within and between those institutions regarding students, curriculum matters, scheduling, and other concerns related to the COP.

Council on Law Enforcement Education & Training (CLEET) Objectives: Although course prefixes, titles and credit hours may vary, both OSU-OKC and RSC will ensure that all required CLEET course objectives are imbedded in their curriculum requirements for the Collegiate Officer Program.

Course Equivalencies: The following courses will be accepted as equivalents for the purposes of the Collegiate Officer Program at each institution.

OSU-OKC

PLSC 1123 Intro to Law Enforcement
PLSC 1413 Police-Community Relations
PLSC 2213 Principles of Investigation

Dear President Carroll:

Re: Collegiate Officer Program Memorandum of Understanding

Pursuant to discussions between staff members of Oklahoma State University-Oklahoma City and Rose State College, a Memorandum of Understanding for the Collegiate Officer Program has been developed. Enclosed are two copies of the Memorandum. If it is acceptable, please sign both copies. Return one copy to us and retain the second copy for your file.

Rose State College is dedicated to providing quality educational programs and services, and we are pleased to have the opportunity to work cooperatively with Oklahoma State University-Oklahoma City to meet the unique educational needs of students in the Collegiate Officer Program. Professor Ted Logan will be the faculty contact for this program and can be reached at 736-0238. If you have questions or concerns regarding the Memorandum, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Larry Witter
